WARNING: The design of the bottle of this Range of Appolinaire is degraded. The style, the visual could be less visible or drawings missing. Hence the price reduction on this bottle compared to the other Appolinaire ranges.   To drink nature, Appolinaire Aphrodisiaque will not leave you indifferent by the beauty of its bottle and its alcohol. Tradition, innovation, here is the first sparkling alcohol of the kind. Revisiting the traditional codes of Rum and Champagne, Appolinaire knew to make naturally sparkle the Rum without addition of Champagne nor gas contribution.   Appolinaire is only elaborate with Rum of the French West-Indian selected carefully for its gustatory qualities. The flavor of rum (with its subtle and vibrating notes) is exalted subtly by the fine sparkling bubbles obtained naturally. It is a slightly distilled but mostly fermented rum. When intensity and delicacy meet for the most beautiful of weddings...   Its surprising 12.7° of moderate alcohol will give you a balance between the character of rum and the freshness of natural bubbly. An explosion of flavors awaits you: At the tasting, a beautiful light orange dress. At the nose, a very flattering aroma with the vapors of spices and mango. In the mouth, the attack is sweet and balanced with the flavors of mango supported by the rum and a return in mouth spicy and dry... Fine bubbles obtained from a natural and traditional Champenoise method highlight the French know-how.   This product will be served for the aperitif or on a dessert (as well with fruits as on
