Description:

To drink fresh nature or with a twist of lemon (in sparkling Ti'punch), Appolinaire Vieux will not leave you indifferent by the beauty of its bottle and its alcohol. Tradition, innovation, here is the first sparkling alcohol of the kind. Revisiting the traditional codes of Rum and Champagne, Appolinaire knew to make naturally sparkle the Rum without addition of Champagne nor gas contribution. Appolinaire is only elaborate with Old Rum Agricultural of the French West-Indian selected carefully for its gustatory qualities. The flavor of rum (with its subtle and vibrating notes) is exalted subtly by the fine sparkling bubbles obtained naturally. It is a slightly distilled but mostly fermented rum. When intensity and delicacy meet for the most beautiful of weddings... Its surprising 20° of alcohol will offer to you a balance between the character of Rum and the freshness of sparkling natural. An explosion of savors expects you:At the tasting, its intense amber color and its powerful nose of Vanilla Rum at the nose announce a great moment. In the mouth, a caramelized flavor with notes of Ti-Punch and in return the wooded coffee. Fine bubbles obtained from a natural and traditional Champenoise method highlight the French know-how. This product will be served on a dessert (as well with fruits as on chocolate notes) or in digestif just for the pleasure. Moreover, its stopper the Maestro was selected for the particular identity which it gives to the bottle while preserving the prestige of the bubbles. Here, Appolinaire Vieux does not speak to the famous writer. It is before all a family homage of the creators to their grandfather, man of exception, great in his moral values and of sharing.
